On 20 October, the United Nations Development Programme in collaboration with UNMISS Relief, Reintegration and Protection section launched its pilot projects entitled Integrated Crisis Prevention and Recovery Programme at the UN House Protection of Civilians site 1, under the theme, “Strengthening National Capacities for Early Recovery, Peace Building and Reconciliation”.

The Integrated Crises Prevention and Recovery Programme aims to create and promote conditions in peacebuilding and social cohesion, community policing and skills development trainings for sustainable livelihoods such as tailoring, catering and hair dressing. The ultimate objective is to encourage the return and re-integration of internally displaced persons to their place of origin.
